

Post graduate Courses / Training in Paediatrics & Child Health of BICH

1. FCPS course in Paediatrics: Twice in a year, in the month of January and July.
FCPS Part II: One year course plus 3 years residency training in any recognized hospitals in respective fields are required after passing FCPS Part-I examination in Paediatrics.
2. MD (Paediatric Medicine), MS (Paediatric Surgery) (3 years course): Two years training in respective field is required. Candidates are eligible to apply two years after their graduation.
3. DCH (one year course): 1 year Residency training in Paediatric Medicine in recognized Hospitals is required to apply in this course, This course is once in a year in the month of July.
4. Three months certificate course in Paediatrics.
5. 15 days Intensive Course for MCPS.
6. B.Sc in Health Technology (Laboratory) : 4 years course): Candidates are eligible to apply after passing S.S.C & H.S.C or equivalent with an average grade point 7.00 (minimum 3.50 in each examination).
7. Integrated Management of Childhood Illness (IMCI) Training.
8. Palli Shishu Rural Health Training.

Admission eligibility for foreign students to be submitted with application

1. Foreign students have to collect NOC (No Objection Certificate) from their respective Mission / Embassy in Bangladesh and other relevant organizations.
2. Their MBBS / equivalent certificate / degree will be required to get equivalency from BMDC (Bangladesh Medical & Dental Council).

Contact Person : Prof. Manzoor Hussain
Academic Director
Bangladesh Institute of Child Health

Address : Bangladesh Institute of Child Health
Dhaka Shishu Hospital
Sher-e-Bangla Nagar
Dhaka- 1207.

Contact Phone No. : 9113048, 8122514 PABX-8116061-62 & 8114571-72, Ext. 409
E-mail: bich@bdcom.com